What supporting documents do I need to provide with my application?

You will need to provide photo identification for all applicants on this form and evidence of any funds (such as bank statements showing savings) you will be using towards your maximum purchase price.

How do I know what my maximum purchase price is?

Your maximum purchase price is based on the amount available through your approved finance, own funds and any grants or gifts available to you. You may need to consider any fees or costs you will need to pay to obtain your finance, such as mortgage insurance, application fee and valuation fee. The Department may need to seek additional verification to confirm your maximum purchase price.

Will I have to pay any fees to submit my application?

There is no fee to submit your application. A Valuation Contribution fee and an administration fee will be included in the settlement costs if you are successful in your application to purchase the premises.

What if I want to purchase the premises with someone who is not on the tenancy agreement?

The Department recognises that securing finance can be difficult and in some cases you may need help to increase your maximum purchase price. This help may come from a close relative such as parents, siblings, children or grandparents.

If any applicant has previously owned or currently owns a property in Australia, or is not going to live in the premises as their main home, this may affect your ability to access any First Home Owner resources from the NT Government.

What happens when you submit your application?

The Department will look at your application and check it is complete. If your application is completed we will give you a lodgement receipt with a reference number. This is NOT confirmation that you will be sold the premises.

The Department will then assess your application including whether the premises is for sale. You will receive a letter advising you of the outcome of your application.

Please note that an incomplete application will not be accepted and will be returned to you along with any supporting documents.
