

Updated Housing Privacy Statement

The Privacy Statement in housing forms and applications has been updated

The Department of Territory Families, Housing and Communities (the Department) takes privacy seriously and regularly reviews and amends policies and procedures to reflect changes in the law, our operational, administrative and IT practices, or other relevant factors, and to ensure we meet our legal obligations to you.

The Privacy Statement explains that when you provide personal information to us through housing forms and applications, you consent to the collection, use, storage and disclosure of your personal information as described in our Privacy Policy.

The Department only collects personal information which is reasonably necessary, or related to, our functions and activities.

To find out more on how information is collected and handled, our Privacy Policy is available at tfhc.nt.gov.au, via the QR code below, or can be requested by contacting the Department.

You have a right to seek access or correction of any information we hold about you.

If you have any queries or concerns about how your personal information is collected and used, please contact the Legal and FOI Unit on (08) 89992602.

We take privacy seriously and regularly review and amend policies and procedures to ensure we meet our legal obligations to you.

Scan to find information about our policies

